LYONS OUTDOOR GAMES

The unofficial kickoff to summer is back! On June 1, 2019, Burning Can Fest at the Lyons Outdoor Games returns to Bohn Park. This year's event features participant and spectator sport competitions that include adventure sports, Outlaw Yoga, Kayaking, a Trail Run / Beer Relay, Dock Dogs, Bike Obstacle Race, BMX Dirt Jump Comp, 70+ craft breweries at Burning Can, and so much more.

Ticket holders can watch world-class athletes competing in both open and professional competitions. The day's line-up includes BMX Dirt Jump competitions and Slalom Kayak Competition. The festival's quirky side shines through with features like "Dock Dogs" dog jumping contests, yoga sessions, and a cornhole tournament.

The music and dance vibes will be in full effect with three musical performances: The Red Petals, Wildermiss, and Moon Taxi.

DOGS

Due to the Bohn Park Construction, the Lyons Outdoor Games event will be held in the Bohn Bark Off-Leash Dog Park. The dog park is scheduled to be closed intermittently on May 30 for vendor access and setup, and then remain closed from May 31 at 9 a.m. through 11 a.m. on Sunday, June 2.

While the dog park is closed for normal use during the weekend, dogs on a leash are welcome at this year's Lyons Outdoor Games! Perhaps you have a future Dock Dog champion in your midst...?
